MA Founder & CEO

A seasoned executive with a demonstrated ability to lead, collaborate, and facilitate “vision to execution.”

Christina Mattison is the dynamic founder, President, and CEO of Mattison Advisors (MA), a leading firm in philanthropy and corporate social impact. With nearly two decades of experience spanning both nonprofit and for-profit sectors, Christina has mastered strategic giving and social investment. Under her leadership, MA serves a diverse portfolio of clients—from multibillion-dollar corporations and family foundations to grassroots nonprofits—helping transform philanthropic goals into lasting, meaningful change.

MA has played a pivotal role in building, sustaining, and elevating over 6,000+ community-based organizations through 9,000+ grants distributed by its clients. Through these efforts, MA’s clients collectively distribute more than $2.75B in grants, loans, tax-exempt financing, and emergency relief funds, amplifying social impact across various sectors.

Christina’s expertise lies in crafting strategies that go beyond traditional philanthropy, guiding high-net-worth individuals, corporate and family foundations, and institutions to achieve maximum social impact. Her ability to streamline and elevate philanthropic efforts has made her a sought-after expert, known for creating legacies of social responsibility and fostering innovative approaches to corporate social responsibility (CSR) and environmental, social, and governance (ESG) initiatives.

Her expertise in philanthropy, social impact, nonprofit leadership, sustainability, healthcare, and business scaling has made her a sought-after thought leader. Christina has received numerous accolades, including being recognized as a Philadelphia Business Journal Minority Business Leader, NJ Biz Honoree, and featured in Generocity’s “20 in 20” for Black Philanthropy Month.

Her engagement with youth organizations in the Northeast demonstrates her commitment to fostering future leaders and empowering the next generation. She currently serves on the board of directors of Philadelphia Health Partnership Foundation and is a financial coach and mentor for Hopeworks.

Whether leading corporations toward more impactful CSR strategies or helping communities thrive through philanthropy, Christina’s influence reaches far and wide, making her a true leader in driving positive change.
